

Questions Nova Scotians May Want to Ask

1. When does the Department intend to address the need for a new governance structure for housing in NS?
2. Will the Department take action to address over-housing and help to accommodate the many families waiting for access to suitable housing?
3. How does the Department intend to improve accountability from the Housing Authorities?
4. How will the Department ensure a consistent approach to administering public housing across the province including the situations and support required for priority access approval?
5. When will the Department establish processes to document and address tenant issues and complaints?