

Questions Nova Scotians May Want to Ask

1. When will the Province assign responsibility to an oversight body to implement a consistent coordinated approach to contaminated sites it is responsible for?
2. Is the Province planning on doing a detailed risk assessment of known and potentially contaminated sites it is responsible for?
3. How will the Province prioritize remediation of contaminated sites it is responsible for?
4. When will the Department of Environment implement a quality assurance processes to ensure appropriate oversight of inspectors?

